SUMMER 2014
School's in for the summer!
WHY QUÉBEC CITY?

• It’s the capital of the province of Québec
• It’s a UNESCO World Heritage City
• It has monumental beauty—and European charm
• It’s one of North America’s top destinations
• Its quality of life is exceptional
• It’s got culture galore, plus great night life
• It boasts 400 years of unforgettable history
• Its hospitality is legendary
• It’s got museums, theatres, concert halls, movie theatres, and art galleries
• It has plenty of green space and a plethora of outdoor activities for sports and nature lovers

PEPS Day Camps
June 23 to August 22, 2014
A variety of athletic day camps for young people, including swimming, climbing, soccer, tennis, trampoline, cooking, science, and more. Information or registration: www.peps.ulaval.ca

Sports and Science Challenge Day Camps
(in cooperation with different faculties and PEPS)
Weeks of July 7, July 14, and August 11, 2014
Ages 12 to 14
The Sports and Science Challenge Camp (three one-week sessions) lets kids experience a variety of scientific and sports activities. Hands-on workshops in the afternoon give campers a chance to satisfy their interest in and curiosity about science. Mornings are devoted to sports activities.
Information and registration: www.peps.ulaval.ca

Faculty of Music Day Camps
Laval’s Faculty of Music, in partnership with the Centre de loisirs Saint-Sacrement, offers a variety of activities at the Université Laval Music Day Camp, including an introduction to music for kids aged 5 to 8 and a two-week intensive camp with instrument instruction and a final concert. These activities are offered on campus, and educational support is provided by advanced students from the Faculty of Music. The camp is certified by the Association des camps du Québec.
Information and registration: 418 681-7800 • clss.qc.ca

Institute of Nutrition and Functional Foods Summer Day Camp
Weeks of July 21, July 28, and August 4, 2014
Ages 10 to 12
Information: www.inaf.ulaval.ca/en/general-public/camp-de-jour

Collège Saint-Charles-Garnier “En français à Québec!” Immersion Program
June 29 to August 1, 2014
Université Laval will play host to a group of 400 students from around the globe for a five-week French immersion program in Québec City. Monday to Friday, students attend classes from 8:30 a.m. to noon and participate in a variety of on-campus activities in the afternoons. Since it is an immersion program, they are required to speak French at all times.
Information and registration: www.garnier-international.com

Camp Shad Valley
June 29 to July 25, 2014
Shad Valley is a four-week enrichment program. Every summer, Université Laval invites young leaders of tomorrow to explore science, technology, and entrepreneurship. Université Laval offers the only bilingual Shad Valley program, so campers must be fluent in English and French. Students will live in residence alongside university instructors and professors.
Information and registration: shad.ca • nicholas.clermont.1@ulaval.ca

While the grown-ups quench their thirst for knowledge, the kids have fun and develop their abilities.

Regular summer courses
May 5 to August 15, 2014
Université Laval offers some 1,300 regular courses on campus during the summer semester. These courses can help you move ahead in your university program or explore new fields. Summer sessions vary in length from 1 to 15 weeks depending on the courses chosen.
Starting March 3, 2014, you will be able to select “Summer 2014” on the advanced course directory search form to view the courses on offer.
www2.ulaval.ca/les-etudes/cours.html

Distance learning
Year in, year out, some 150 distance courses are offered in various fields during the summer semester. Most of these courses run for 11 weeks, beginning in early May and ending around July 20.
Whether you want to enrich your general knowledge, upgrade your skills, or obtain the university degree you’ve been dreaming of, choose Université Laval for distance learning and:
• take advantage of a wide range of courses and programs
• balance your studies, work, and personal life with ease
• write exams in your region

The list of courses offered is available online in early March. Visit www.distance.ulaval.ca to learn more about the advantages of distance learning and how courses are given.

Agreement with Bureau de la coopération universitaire (formerly CREPUQ)
Under this agreement, regular students enrolled at a Québec university (the “home school”) can take one or more courses at another Québec institution of higher learning (the “host school”) as part of their program of study.
For more information, visit: www.crepuq.qc.ca
USEFUL INFORMATION

Short-term accommodation at Université Laval residences

Québec City's best value for accommodation!
