ATTESTATION OF DEGREE

The attestation is an official document (letter) confirming degree completion and graduation. Available in paper* or digital versions, this document is typically used when a person is applying for employment or has just been hired.

Fees for attestations, for each program:

French: 13 $ paper version (3 copies)
13 $ digital version

English: 13 $ paper version (3 copies)
13 $ digital version

TRANSLATION OF DEGREE

The translation of the degree is a reproduction of the full text that appears on the degree parchment. The translation of the degree parchment resembles a letter written in English. This document is available in paper* or digital versions.

Fees for translations, for each program:

English: 22 $ paper version (3 copies)
22 $ digital version

* The paper version is signed by the current Secretary General of the University and is embossed with the official seal of Université Laval. You will receive automatically 3 copies of each document.

 The digital version is electronically signed to ensure its authenticity and integrity. This signature has the same value as the handwritten signature and the embossed seal. For more details.

CERTIFIED COPY OF DEGREE

The certified copy of the degree parchment is a black and white photocopy of the original. Only available in paper version, the certified copy is signed by the current Secretary General of the University and is embossed with the official seal of Université Laval. The applicant must provide an electronic version of the original documentation.

Fees: for each program
